

Contents

Foreword	v
Darrell P. Wheeler
Acknowledgments	vii
Prologue	ix

Part I

Intersection of Social Work Practice with Social Entrepreneurship, Social Intrapreneurship, and Social Innovation

1 Social Entrepreneurship, Social Intrapreneurship, Social Innovation, and Social Value Creation: An Overview and Implications for Social Work	3
Monica Nandan, Tricia B. Bent-Goodley, Gokul Mandayam, and Archana Singh
2 Innovation and Creativity in Nonprofits	27
Kristina Jaskyte Bahr
3 Social Innovation and Social Work Practice	47
James M. Mandiberg, Joshua P. H. Livingston, and Joe Silva
4 Financial Inclusion and Social Entrepreneurship	70
Mathieu R. Despard
5 Macro Practice and Its Relationship to Social Innovation	96
Stephanie Cosner Berzin

Part II

Global Examples of Social Entrepreneurship, Social Intrapreneurship, Social Innovation, and Social Value Creation: Relevance for Social Work Practice

6 Child Helpline International: From Social Work Field Action Project to an International Social Entrepreneurial Venture	117
Jeroo Billimoria
7 Community Development, Empowerment, and Social Entrepreneurship by “Thankyou”: An Australian Example	136
Manohar Pawar

8	Innovation in a Chinese Social Work Context	153
	Louise Brown and Jie Lei
9	Innovative Practices in Financial Inclusion and Asset Building: Relevance for Social Work Practice	173
	Mathieu R. Despard
10	Social Entrepreneurship: Case of Livelihoods and Economic Development in an Urban Environment in India	200
	Archana Singh
11	Social Entrepreneurship: Case Examples in Homelessness and Mental Health in the United States	220
	Carol S. Collard and Irene Searles McClatchey
12	Social Entrepreneurship: A Zanzibari Example	243
	Ronya Foy Connor and Tricia B. Bent-Goodley
13	Self-Help Groups as Social Enterprises: Citizen-Driven Social Entrepreneurship in India	253
	Mahasweta M. Banerjee
	Epilogue	275
	About the Editors	279
	About the Contributors	281
	Index	285